Thank you for ordering the STARFLIGHT unit! Your new STARFLIGHT unit is sure to meet your expectations with top-quality performance!
==========

Model line: RAINWING
Unit: GLORY
Height: three and a quarter scavengers
Weight: whatever she tells you, if you're brave enough to ask

Your GLORY unit comes with:
-(1) SILVER unit
-(1) flower crown
-(3) packs of guava seeds
-(4) venom-proof fang caps

Unpacking and rebooting

It is wise to exercise extreme caution while unpacking and rebooting the GLORY unit, as she can be unpredictable. For your safety, we have included three methods to safely unpack and reboot your GLORY unit.

1. Have a DEATHBRINGER unit call out for her. Your GLORY unit will initially remain in her package and aim sarcastic comments at the DEATHBRINGER from within it's safe confines, but will eventually emerge peacefully as long as the two are not interrupted. While they are definitely not flirting with each other, approach the GLORY unit from behind to access her mainframe to reboot.

2. Leave a dish of guavas (prepared in any way you like) out nearby the GLORY unit's package. The GLORY unit will be lured out of her package by the scent of delicious guavas. While she is stuffing her face, approach the GLORY unit from behind to access her mainframe to reboot.

3. Have a WHIRLPOOL unit propose marriage to a KINJAKOU unit and/or a DEATHBRINGER unit. The GLORY unit will wrathfully emerge from her package and spit venom at the WHIRLPOOL unit. While the GLORY unit is either explaing to the KINKAJOU unit why the WHIRLPOOL unit deserved it or further damaging the WHIRLPOOL unit with the DEATHBRINGER unit, approach the GLORY unit from behind to access her mainframe to reboot.

Applying venom-proof fang-caps.

Unlike most of the other units in the RAINWING model line, the GLORY unit is very reluctant to cap her fangs, as she feels that she must be ready to defend herself at all times. If you still wish to cap your GLORY unit's fangs, we have provided several methods of application for your safety.

1. Lace your GLORY unit's guavas with cloudberry juice. While she is under the effect of cloudberry juice, it is safe to pry her jaw open and apply the fang-caps.

2. Convince a DEATHBRINGER unit that applying the fang-caps is for the GLORY unit's own good/safety. The DEATHBRINGER unit will somehow handle it from there.

3. Threaten to take away the GLORY unit's guavas unless she complies with the application of fang-caps.

For the safety of you and your new GLORY unit, we have included a list of which units the GLORY unit gets along best with, and a list of units that the GLORY unit must never been alone in the same room with.

DEATHBRINGER unit
The GLORY unit and DEATHBRINGER unit are one of our most compatible pairs. The DEATHBRINGER unit will try to accompany the GLORY unit everywhere, which may annoy the GLORY unit. It is impossible for your GLORY unit to pursue a relationship with another dragon while the DEATHBRINGER unit is in close proximity, as all other potential parterns malfunction mysteriously shortly after meeting the GLORY unit. The GLORY unit finds the DEATHBRINGER unit to be charming and handsome, if exasperating at times. These two dragons can look forward to many happy years together.

TSUNAMI unit
The GLORY unit and TSUNAMI unit's relationship can range from "friendly rivals" to "inseperable best friends," depending on how often they see eachother. While the GLORY unit can annoy the TSUNAMI unit, the two are quite fond of eachother, even if they won't admit it. If a RIPTIDE unit ot DEATHBRINGER unit is nowhere nearby, it is possible for them to end up together with some encouragement.

KINKAJOU unit
The Kinkajou looks up to the GLORY unit greatly, and would follow her anywhere. The GLORY unit views the KINKAJOU unit as a little sister, and the two get along well.

MORROWSEER unit
The MORROWSEER unit is constantly trying to eliminate the GLORY unit, as she doesn't fit in his prophecy. In turn, the GLORY unit despises the MORROWSEER unit for his plan to take over the RAINWING model line. They should never be in the same room, accompanied by others or alone. WoF Units Co. is not responsible for any damage the MORROWSEER unit and GLORY unit inflict on eachother.

Hygiene and health
The GLORY unit is very healthy and keeps herself clean, though can suffer from a lack of sleep. A DEATHBRINGER unit or a KINKAJOU unit can help you make sure your GLORY unit gets plenty of sun time.

FAQ

My GLORY unit has been looking really sick lately. Is she okay?

Your GLORY unit is most likely suffering from a lack of sleep. Any nearby MAYFLY unit will be able to supply you with medicine to help her sleep. It is best to have a DEATHBRINGER unit give her the medicine.

My GLORY unit keeps on picking fights with my neighbor's MORROWSEER unit! How do I stop thinks from getting out of hand?

If a MORROWSEER unit lives nearby, a fight between the NIGHTWING model line and the RAINWING model line is inevitable. The best thing for you to do is to temporarily relocate yourself until your GLORY unit contacts you.

I'm trying to put my GLORY unit on a diet, but she won't stop eating guava cake/ice cream. How do I get her to stop?

You don't.

My past problems have been fixed, it turns out my SORA and UMBER units were being running from my ICICLE unit and i now sorted everything out.
But when I left my TSUNAMI unit, SCARLET unit, GLORY unit and GILL unit together. There were 3 smoldering heaps of metal, and an injured GLORY unit when i came back. Not long after my FATESPEAKER unit proposed to my STARLIGHT unit which is perfectly fine. However my SUNNY unit locked herself away in my room afterwards. When i finally managed to get the door down with help from my CLAY and PERIL units, my SUNNY unit had deactivated. Whats going on, and what do you suggest to do?

I managed to convince my DEATHBRINGER unit that applying the fang caps was beneficial to the GLORY unit. The fang caps are now applied, but my GLORY unit now incessantly pursues the DEATHBRINGER unit and attempts to strike him with large heavy objects. It is distressing to the surrounding units, with the exception of the other units from the DRAGONETS OF DESTINY set, which are watching with apparent delight while munching on various foods, and my SILVER unit, which has relocated to a position directly on top of my SUNNY unit. Both appear content enough. However, please advise.

Dear ghostlynx120,

Units from the VILLAINS category and units from the HEROES category generally don't get along. A fight probably broke out between your units, resulting in your GLORY unit melting your other UNITS with her venom and ORCA enchanting a spear to kill her. Have another unit from the ANIMUS sub-category take the enchantment off the spear.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear steelcrest24,

Please contact a specialist about your GLORY unit's strange feelings about your SILVER unit.

=========

Dear bluedragon4420,

Let nature take it's course. Your GLORY unit will forgive your DEATHBRINGER unit in due time.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

=========

Dear ravendragon409,

Your GLORY unit's uncharacteristic act of cannibalism confounds our programmers. Shut off your GLORY unit immediately. Same for your TSUNAMI unit.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

==========

Dear sapphirewolf1624,

We're afraid that your units have been forced to fight in the SCARLET unit's gladiator arena. Your GLORY unit attacked the SCARLET unit out of rage, and is the sole survivor. We offer our deepest condolenses and are sending you replacement units.
Also, your SUNNY unit is most likely upset about the union of your STARFLIGHT unit and FATESPEAKER unit. We suspect that your SUNNY unit has developed romantic feelings for your STARFLIGHT unit. She will get over it in due time, but we suggest ordering a CUSTOM DRAGON unit if she still wishes for a partner.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

Dear earlycrow44,

Try asking your SUNNY unit and CLAY unit to intervene with your GLORY unit and DEATHBRINGER unit. Your GLORY unit feels betrayed by the DEATHBRINGER unit, but with consolation and regular group therapy sessions, she and the DEATHBRINGER unit will be back to playfully flirting and sassing eachother in no time.

Sincerely,
WoF Units Co.

Dear outsmartingbasilisk18,

It is possible that your GLORY unit has been sabotaged by a SCARLET unit. To get her back to normal, reboot your GLORY unit.

Dear midwintercat33,

It is possible that your neighbor's JAMBU unit is skeptical of your DEATHBRINGER unit and doesn't want your GLORY unit to be in a relationship with him. Try having the three of them attend group therapy along with a SUNNY unit.
Also, the GLORY unit has the tendancy to come and go as she pleases, but it usually depends on the circumstances.

The employee on the line will ask, "Do the curtains match the drapes?"

Respond with, "No, but the carpet does."

The employee will give you directions to an abandoned warehouse in Seattle, where you will have to undergo a series of rigorous trials and then take an aptitude test to determine the best WoF unit for you to order. This, is course, is only a friendly suggestion. You will be able to purchase whichever unit you like. Dear WoF Units Co.,
Not too long ago, I purchased two EGG units for my GLORY and DEATHBRINGER units. However, they were argueing over names for the soon-to-be dragonets when my WHIRLPOOL unit snuck up on them and tried to steal one of the eggs. I have no idea why he tried to do that, but GLORY proceeded to attempt to rip his head off and stuff him in Mt. Kilauea. She failed, but WHIRLPOOL has made off with one of the eggs, and DEATHBRINGER tracked him down and succeeded in stuffing him down in to Mt. Kilauea. None of us know where he stashed the egg, so I need a WHIRLPOOL and EGG replacement, but my other units barred the door and I am apparently on house arrest. How do I handle this situation?
